Summary

Supporting Scriptures

Proverbs 22:6, Deuteronomy 6:4-7, 1 Corinthians 4:17

While on the verge of dying a martyr's death at the hands of Nero, Paul reflects upon the peaks and valleys of his ministry. One of the highlights of his life occurred with his encounter with Timothy. Paul first discovered him on his second journey either at Derbe or Lystra. His mother, Eunice, was already a believer, his father a Greek. Timothy seems to have been converted on Paul's first visit. Although Paul would be responsible for acknowledging Timothy's call to ministry, his faith journey came at the hands of his grandmother and mother.
