

May 21st-27th

Sermon Template

Learn Well (Small Group Discussion)

Summary

Psalm 105 is classified as a historical Psalm. It drips with God's faithfulness to His people. In the Psalm, the writer sets out to show how God's promises accompanied Israel from Egypt to Canaan. Considering all the Lord had done, the psalmist appeals to the nation to seek and cherish the Lord and His faithful acts.

Supporting Scriptures

Psalm 105:1-14, Jeremiah 5:7-13 Matthew 6:33

Never Stop Seeking

Psalm 105:4

1. What do you think the writer was suggesting when he stated, "Seek the Lord and his strength?"

_____.

2. What is the significance of intention aligning with expectation?

_____.

3. You will never receive God's power void of _____.

4. Why should we be on guard for things that present themselves as surrogates of God?

_____.

5. Seeking God continually should lead to spiritual _____, not

_____.

6. How is seeking the Lord resembled in your life? Explain your answer.

7. Is there a disparity in how you seek God when things are well opposed to difficult moments? Explain your answer.

Discussion